

F1 News

03.10.22 & 10.10.22

Family Matters

We will be talking about different types of families and learn that a family is people in our lives who love and take care of each other. We will be exploring positional language and then looking at patterns on socks. We will be matching them, describing them and creating our own patterns.

We created model of the people we loved and acted our roles in our home

We explore problem solving through jigsaws and matching pairs etc.

